ON PAGE 8.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

NEW YORK, THURSDAY, MAY 15, 1902.

BROOKLYN-CHICAGO .

MURDER IN OAK STREET.

NATIONAL LEAGUE GAMES.

AMERICAN LEAGUE GAMES.

At Philadelphia-End of seventh: Boston, 5; Phila., 2.

LATE RESULTS AT WORTH.

LATE RESULTS AT ST. LOUIS.

Fourth Race-Ampere 1, Wakita 2, Johnnie McCartey 3.

EXPLODING BENZINE BURNS TWO.

carefully laid plan of Chief Wilkie, of the Secret Service.

GEORGE BLAIR SUES TO BE REINSTATED.

George Biair wants to be reinstated as Superintendent of the Outdoo

Col. Asa Bird Gardiner applied to Justice O'Gorman in Supreme Court

MONTHEAL. May 14. The Provincial Detective Office in this city has seceived a memage from the Attorney-General's Department in Quebec which says that Detective Carpenter did not arrest Gaynur and Greene but CANDY COOKING STARTS A FIRE.

Poor, from which he was removed in March by Commissioner of Charities for a mandamus directong Coommissioner Folks to reinstate Blair on the ground that as a veteran of the civil war he could not under the White law

CANADIANS TO INTERCEPT GAYNOR KIDNAPPERS.

Chief of Detectives Carpenter, of Montreal

Union Market and Oak street stations.

Homer Folks.

Fifth Race—Haidee 1, Cherries 2, Braw Lad 3.

At Washington-End of fifth: Baltimore, 1; Washington, 1.

Paolo Lascelle was attacked by three men at James and

BROOKLYNS OPEN

GAME WITH A RUSH.

cetorio.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

RACING-BASEBALL GENERAL SPORTING NEWS

ON PAGE 8.

PRICE ONE CENT.

PRICE ONE CENT.

MISS BURNS ALWAYS CARRIED A REVOLVER."

Witnesses at Brooks Inquest Swear the Girl Went About the Streets Armed-Dead Man's Mother Gay Boy Takes the Van Breaks Down in Court-A Day of Dramatic Incidents.

STRIKING EVIDENCE AGAINST MISS BURNS AT INQUEST TO-DAY.

The most striking evidence adduced to-day at the Brooks inquest, against Florence Burns, is that Miss Burns, by her own statement, as alleged by a witness, always carried a revolver.

The revolver she carried was her father's weapon. She made one attack upon "Handsome Ed" Watson, but was disarmed.

She threatened Walter Brooks for going with other girls. She was the companion of Walter Brooks at the Glen Island Hotel.

The second day of the inquest | A solitary woman spectator. dressed

Ine second day of the inquest in deep mourning, was present when court opened before Coroner Brown and jury in the Criminal Courts Building.

She had entered at an early hour, and his death in the Glen Island Hotel, was replete with dramatic absorbing interest. She declined to te and sensational incidents.

The mother of the dead man, bowed by grief and care, heard testimony that besmirched the memory of the son she mourns; heard stories of his escapades with the now notorious Bedford avenue "crowd;" heard evidence purporting to fasten the the arm of her husband. guilt of murder upon Florence Burns, Identification Positive. the beautiful girl. who, once accused and once freed, is practicaly the defendant figure in these proceedings.

"I loved him; he was dearer to me than anything else on earth," Flor-Brooks's companion at the Glen Island ence Burns said when face to face Hotel was that of a "dark complexion-with the charge of killing her sweetif Florence Burns was the young wom-

Yet to-day, as against her declaration of love as evidence that if murder had been done she was innocent, witnesses who in one breath sullied the name of Walter Brooks, in the next voiced grave accusation, direct and with a paroxyem of sobs col lapsed in the court-room.

HATASCO WINS CLAREMONT

Nest Stakes and Is Bid Up $2,900-Mr. Mackay Saves Colt.

DR. RIDDLE AT 15 TO 1.

Dixieline, Roehampton and Other Brooklyn Handicap a Furlong Handicap.

the racing was very interesting. Outside of the Van Nest Stakes and the Claremont Handicap, which were fix-tures, the feature was a handicap at a mile and a furlong, which brought out a number of Brooklyn Handicap eligibles. The race was all the more in-che room wateried the proceedings with	Betting.

•	absorbing interest. She declined to tell	Starters, white, jocks. St. Hif. Fin. Str. Place,
-	her name, but she is said to be the	Brunswick, 98, E. Hewitt 2 31/2 15 12 6
		Musidora, 101, Booker 7 11 2h 7 5-2
	widowed mother of a young man-a for-	Somerset 107 Burns 6 91 314 7-2 7-5
	mer member of the Bedford section	Sattre, 115. O'Connor 4 60 41 14-5 1
	corterie-the revelation of whose esca-	Astor, 104, Cochran 3 10 514 25 16 Frank Kenny, 112, Odom 5 2° 6° 15
•	pade with young women, following the	Essene. 103. Wonderly 9 41 72 12 4 murder of young Brooks, caused an upheaval in certain Brooklyn circles.	Early Eve. 96, Shea 12 11 9 16 5
•	Later, the grief-bowed mother of Wal-	Vesuvia, 101, C. Smith., 14 12 10 40 15 Uncle Louis, 104, McGinn 11 7, 11 100 40
	ter Brooks, wearing a long heavy black	Freelander, 88, Redfern, 16 13 12 40 12
	veil, entered the court room hanging on	Locket, 90, D. O'Connor. 1 8 18 20 6
		Maru, 88. Dart 13 14 14 40 12
	the arm of her husband.	Trentham, 86. Wilkerson 16 15 15 80 30
		Geraldyn, 94. Yancy 10 16 16 100 30
	Identification Positive.	Start straggling. Won driving. Time-1.15.
	George Washington, the negro bell-	Musidora cut out the running, fol-
	George Washington, the meno och	. Didition Cot out the

George Washington, the negro bell-boy, was recalled to the stand told again of his identification of Florence an who accompanied Brooks, answered in a tone of determination which re-flected its effect in the faces of the jury: "Yes, I could identify her among Washington was equally positive that at no time prior to the proceedings be-fore Justice Mayer had he described the young woman who went to the next voiced grave accusation, direct or implied, against the girl principal of this, the most remarkable court drama of perhaps a decade.

And the mother of the slain boy, her nerves stretched to the snapping point, shouted out a vindication of his character—the charge that he had been drugged on a certain night—been drugged on a certain night—and with a paraxyxym of solps coilyears of age and pale of face. He was a member of the Bedford section gaug.

hundred women."

first witness and

KNIFE FOUND IN BARRETT'S HEART AFTER HE WAS DEAD.

Strange Revelation in an Autopsy on a Man Believed to Have Died of Pneumonia.

An autopsy reveals that William Barrett of No. 21 Madison etreet, who rett, of No. 21 Madison etreet, who died yesterday in the City Hospital on linackwells leisend, supposedly of pneumonia, has a knife blade in his barrett and made the rate of the start and made of the start and made of the start and made of the start and the start and the start and made of the start and the start and made of the start and made of the start and the

Eligibles Beaten in Mile and

h	long	3.1	Wattley
1	Starters, whts, jocks.	St. Hit Fin.	Str. Place.
e	Brunswick, 98, E. Hewitt	2 31/2 15	12 6
	Musidora, 101, Booker	7 11 2h	7 5-2
	Somerset, 107, Burns	6 91 314	7-2 7-5
,	Satire, 115. O'Connor	4 60 41	14.9
-	Astor, 104, Cochran	3 10 54	25 16 15 8
e	Frank Kenny, 112. Odom Essene, 103. Wonderly. Marothen, 101. J. Martin Early Eve. 96, Shea	9 41 72	12 4
	Marothen 101 J Martin	8 814 8	20 8
	Early Eye. 96. Shea	12 11 9	20 8 16 6
	Vesuvia, 101, C. Senith.	14 12 10	40 15
•	Uncle Louis, 104, McGinn	11 71 11	100 40
c	Freelander, 88, Redfern.	16 13 12	40 13
2	Locket, 95, D. O'Connor.	1 50 13	20 8
•	Maru, 88. Dart Trentham, 86. Wilkerson	13 14 14	20 8 40 12 50 20
ď	Geraldyn, 94. Yancy	10 10 10	100 . 20
	Start straggling. Won	driving. T	me-1.15.
	Musidora cut out	the runn	ing. fol-
4	lowed by Frank Ken	ny. Bruns	wick and TRIED RACE.

HANDICAP.

BROOKLYN 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 CHICAGU 0 0 0 1 0 1

(Special to The Evening World.)
MORRIS PARK, May 18.—The card was well made up this afternoon and bles. The race was all the more in-teresting for this reason.

Add to the good card the finest of weather, a fast track and abundant op-portunity for speculation, and the race-goers could ask for nothing more. The crowd swarmed to the course in goods numbers and filled the grand stand coin-fortably.

FIRST RACE.

FIRST RACE. Selling; for three-year-olds and up; aix fur-they wer carried away by American detectives. The instructions given by the Attorney-General are that the Chief of the Provincial Lintectives here in to intercept, if possible the boat carrying the prisoners seventh street, was comping celter to the attober this afternoon, some paper cought fee tack of the store. The stermed the household and overrine gut sandely title the atreat before the firemer came. They put the fire out after it had done phou! $100 damage fact of Purally dourth street. He had fallen overhood and drawned. at the fast of Puntily dourth street. He had fallen overhourd and drowned annuals

..............................

BODY OF MAX STRAUBS FOUND.

Trolley Dodgers Pound Chicago Pitcher's Twice in First Inning -American League Jumper See Fight for the Odd Game of Series.

The Batting Order. Oak streets shortly before 6 o'clock this evening. He was shot Chicago.
Slagle, If.
Jones, cf.
Dexter, 3b.
Williams, rf.
Kling, c.
Lowe, 2b.
O'Hagan, 1b.
Tinker, ss.
St. Vrain, twice and taken to the hospital dying. His assailants escaped Research If. McCreery, 1b. Dahlen, ss. Flood, 2b. Flood, 2b. Frond, 3b. Farrell. C. Farrell. C. Farrell. C.

(Special to The Evening World.)
WEST SIDE PARK, CHICAGO, May 16 .- The Orphans and Trolley Dodgers At Pittsburg—Pittsburg, 5; Boston, 1.

At Cincinnati—End third inning: Philadelphia 2 Cincinnati 3.

At Ithaca—Manhattan, 2; Cornell, 5. For weak batting of the horsehide the four games came pretty near tagging the record.

Hanlon read the riot act to some of Acrobat Sheckard was hauled over the coals for two yellow blunders on fly balls and a bum slice to the par that lost a run.

The manager had excuses for Wheeler, who was nervous and fought the ball every time it was hit to his garden. He gave the Orphans the winning run. Hanlon made Bad Bill Dahlen promise to be good to the umpire in Fourth Race-Flying Torpedo 1, Boney Boy 2, Hermencia 3.

yesterday for three hits, but there was nobody to send him around. Doc Newton was on the firing line for the second time in the series, and the Superbas counted on him to repeat his shut-out of Sunday. Selee was undecided what slab artist to use, but Jack Taylor wanted another chance at the Trolley Dodgers. The choice rested between him and Williams.

The weather took another turn for the better, the day being warm and pleasant.

Mary Beatty, a servant of Dr. Jane Walter, residing in the Greylock, No. 61 West Seventy-fourth street, and a painter who went to her rescue were badly burned late this afternoon by flames from a can of benzine which exploded in the apartment. There was considerable excitement among the tenants

First Inning. CHIEF WILKIE MADE PLAN TO KIDNAP GAYNOR.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The kidnapping and subsequent arrest of Gaynor and Greene at Quebec was the result of a Keeler scoring and McCreery landing carefully laid plan of Chief Wilkie of the Secret Secret Secret Research and made a bad throw to the plate, Keeler scoring and McCreery landing

(Continued on Eighth Page.)

The capture was planned to take place yesterday, and that Department had been looking for news of their arrest all day, NEWSPAPER CLAIM UPSET. to the street, where they threw him All the arrangements were perfectly carried out even to the issuance of the warrants by the judge on the application of Assertion that It supplied Greater BLOODSHED FEARED BY POLICE IN EAST SIDE MEAT RIOTS. Manhattan paper the claim that that of the supplies sent on the Dixle. The police of the East Side have grave fears that the meat riots are The police of the East Side have grave fears that the meat riots are going to develop into a series of bloody encounters unless steps are taken to suppress the women who have taken it upon themselves to boycott the kosher meat dealers. Rioting of a mild sort continued all day, and many arrests were made during the afternoon. A concerted attack on the ment shops to-night would not surprise the police. To-morrow, which is market day for the Sabbath provisions, is sure to produce trouble, and extra policement will be sent to the Eldridge street, Madison street, Delancey street, Union Market and Oak street stations.

This claim is so ridiculous that denial seems almost useless, but Major Gallating the content of the graph and Capt. W. G. Roas desired that the last seems almost useless, but Major Gallating the sent state the exact amount of supplies sent by the Government and by all private corporations.

The United States Government had on board 1.130 tons of subsistence stores, populate of quartermaster's supplies, from the Government. The combined of quartermaster's supplies, from the Eldridge street, Madison street, Delancey street, Union Market and Oak street stations.

TO-NIGHT'S EVENTS.

Republican County Commit-

New York Yacht Club. Dinner of the Alumnae of the hen turk Medical tuilege for Mamen. Hotel Majestic.

Academy of Medicine, he IT Meat Forty-third atrect. Educational Attauce. Sast Brondmas and Jefferson etreet Lecture on "Passion Piny" beture Juhn D. Huckefeller, ir.

dible class. Mexica of Phirtecuth Steptment by Maror Lon. armurr.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Spranger dur the thirts-nie While the cook in the house of J. S. Skillman at his did West Seventynumer cading at # # # friday me how both titte and vicinity water and continued cost to migrate geretentete Atgeter Annes to the authorite and the excisity of the esta: Butther Sate: Scent to tight mortherly minds

"SORRY NIXON RESIGNED;

CROKER.

Curves and Score Retired Leader of Tammany Hall in a Special Cable Despatch to The Evening World Says He Does Not Know What Effect It Will Have.

> The Evening World to-day sent this cable message: To RICHARD CROKER, Wantage, England:

Would appreciate cable statement from you on Nixon's retirement, cause and effect.

Late this afternoon this reply was received:

Evening World, New York: Sorry Nixon resigned.

Do not know what effect it will have. NO ORDERS COME FROM ME.

KIDNAP GAYNOR AND GREENE.

the hired men who had molasses fingers yesterday and threw away the American Detectives Seize Them in Quebec and Wives Chase Them in a Tug.

> QUEBEC, May 15 .- Col. John F. friends of ex-Capt. Oberlin M. Carter, the two Americans indicted for alleged fraud in connection with the Savannah, Ga., fortification works, who have been enjoying the safe asylum of Quebec for the past two months, were seized and smuggled out of the city this morning at 11.30 by six American detectives.

The abduction was most daringly accomplished.

Capt. Greene was in the act o him to the water side.

They dumped him on a tugboa previously engaged, that was lying alongside the wharf.

Seized Gaynor at Hotel. In the mean time three other American officers proceeded to the Chateau Frontenac and there found Col. Gay nor, who was standing at the office counter talking to the clerk. The officers approached him without ceremony and seized him and took him into a cab and also drove to the wa-

They put him also on board the tug-Spray and steamed up the river.

Just as soon as possible Gaynor's and Greene slawyers, who were notified of the kidnapping, took steps to arrest the progress cf the boat with their clients on board.

Local detectives got to work, and Major Gallagher, who is to have charge of the distribution of the supplies on and Greene's lawyers, who were notice the river in another tug in pursuit Gaynor and Capt. Benjamin D.Greene, Mrs. Gaynor and Mrs. Greene, the wives of the Americans, went -'--g. It is asserted that the plan of arresting Gaynor and Greene was concocted at Montreal; that a lawyer named McMaster, of that city, had hired the tug, and also that Silas Carpenter, the chief detective of the Montreal police, was in the scheme.

in twenty minutes were following up

May Cause International Row. The legal advisers of Gaynor and reene will do everything possible to emerging from the Post-Office when three officers, whose identity is as yet under cover, pounced on him, threw him in a cab and drove with

Just before the Dixie sailed last night tug-Spray and steamed up the river. Just as soon as possible Gaynor's the Island of Martinique, read in a fied of the kidnapping, took steps to arrest the progress of the boat with result in bringing about internation complications. WARRANTS SWORN OUT IN MONTREAL, have their clients returned to Quebec.

and even if they are taken to safet?

over the line will resort to the Government for assistance, which may

MONTREAL, May 15 .- The warrants pon which Gaynor and Green were arsted in Quebec were sworn out by Marion Erwin, of Macon, Ga., who has been for some time in this city.

He is advised by the law firm of MacMaster & Hickson and the wa were given into the hands of Chief of City Detectives Carpenter to ex The warrants charge the men with

HUSBAND HELD FOR WIFE'S DEATH. ON CITY SIDEWALKS

Ago Said to Be Responsible for Stomach Cancer Which Killed Mrs. Schneppel.

the Canter Huspital at No. 5 Perfy apitting on sidewalks.

The action was taken as a result of The woman had been if ever since the ser so include attended so as to include attendad. After sectioned assault thancer sheveloped and terring to the law as adopted in Jahl-

CHILD A LOCKIAW VICTIM.

banankou a d'un dinun dinu dans

NO MORE SPITTING

Kick Administered Four Years Board of Health Amends the Law to Protect Health of Pedestrians on the Suggestion of Dr. Biggs.

The Board of Health has prohibited